Profile

Fine Artist and Designer Cecilia Henle, was born in St. Paul, Mn., youngest of ten creative and independent siblings, and raised part time on a horse ranch. Honoring a long family history of creative musical and artistic talent going back generations, Cecilia is proud to be dedicated to the Arts in her work, and is devoted to helping artists and clients come together in support of art and artists. Experience and dedication as a licensed and published artist and designer on a multitude of projects, via solo and group gallery shows, interviews, corporate consults and private commissions have come together to produce a career driven by love of style and design, and artistic expression in many mediums. Cecilia brings integrity, loyalty, talent, ability and humor to every job undertaken, and is excellent in facilitating good communication and creative problem-solving on all projects. Clients are very happy with the results.
